Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State organizations which have dedicated their time and resources to helping others in society; and

Whereas, the Saint Charles County Suburban Journals join an impressive list of corporate leaders who have committed time and resources to mental health efforts; and

Whereas, on Friday, February 18, 2005, the Saint Charles County Suburban Journals will enhance their already impressive record of achievement when they receive Corporate Leadership for Mental Health recognition from the Crider Center for Mental Health at the Heroes for Mental Health 2005 celebration at the Columns Banquet Center in Saint Charles; and

Whereas, the Saint Charles County Suburban Journals consistently report on mental health events, activities, and community programs that impact hundreds of lives by lessening the stigma associated with mental illness and strengthening the messages that give hope to children, youth, adults, and families affected by mental health issues; and

Whereas, the Saint Charles County Suburban Journals and their reporters have demonstrated great care and compassion in the stories that they have presented to the public from the days in the early 1980's when Crider Center was known as Four County Mental Health Services; and

Whereas, the Saint Charles County Suburban Journals compassionately, fairly, and respectfully have covered such events as the floods of 1993 to the passage of local taxes as such issues relate to mental health issues for area residents:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of the Saint Charles County Suburban Journals for Corporate Leadership for Mental Health recognition from the Crider Center for Mental Health and to convey to it this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to the Saint Charles County Suburban Journals.
